

In all the many poli

Banda Oriental, we are confident for its present crisis, since in reality the population is not ruled by the rulers but by the ruled people; and this extrajudicial phenomenon is difficult of definition and so obscure. Had we the courage to contend with the fact or to bear the most systematic news one could better understand 'en masse' the tirement, but, on the other hand, the Press of Montevideo is so rate and guarded, and the elements of disorder, obvious in the Argentine are in the least discernible. It needs, then,

A revolution in thought has been termed a novelty in Montevideo is witty since it assumes a far distance than a mere chit-chatry or public men; a for its occurrence given of Colonel Latorre his cussion against the people that strikes sense of their nation.

"I resign power with conviction that the people are unconquerable," the words of Colonel Latorre on handing the Senate on handing the words that strike the Plate and strike the schau Argentines, than Montevideoans. Had the assassin's Latorre and his offices—had a revolution as in former years, a man been cut down had an invading Oriental patriots swept laid siege to Montevideo would have had less the people of this present constitution authority, with a chance does and a verdict to ourselves.

We have now no inclination to discuss the Latorre rule. Every anything of the controversy of the Plate knowledge of the adversity with and the anarchy which Every well-wisher

Original signed to see ship succeeded by a form of Government wishes were accomplished, in the month of institutionalism, the Clifflings up office, and finished public with of Government.

If the press of Buenos Aires with this subject independent spirit, readers of this city to learn : but it is impossible for such a thing. we expect our colleagues that the cap fits us, thing political scene have all witnessed republic have culminated video and by caramelism.

Nilism that in truth in Buenos Aires.

been guarded and re-
ny and pasquinade its columns. The meddle with politisation, if it does Oriental it must pos-
sels than the Mon-
The extraordinary
ween Argentines
cannot be more clear
in their newspaper
country are seditious very printing-ink, &
of all our political exin Montevideo they reverse. In this re-
and revolution ex-
pers; in Montevideo
the people, 'Viol-
after all to be pestitical revolutionary mourning of our liv-
hatched revolution

which has provoked the state of affairs in the

The following is the manifesto : —

Montevideo

To the Hon. General

In obedience to the co-dictates and the my dignity as a longer consent to no of public affairs, and Your Honour hand- sident of the Repu- was honoured on the God preserve You

Colonel Latorre to and all the i Republic.

Having irrevoc- leave office, I have signation of the p

Conscience and duty alike impose a forcible resolution upon public life; and this contributed to the improvement and development of the country, it has been the sacrifice—organised, and organised, and the spirit that was used in some hope of a reconstruction.

Amongst those who have faced calumny and Defamation, as Creed that public country even the late name; for, he false and passion

 the calm verdict
 ever render just serve it, and the
 which always jud
 with the strictes
 In retiring int
 with me the sad
 country is the gov
 With this conv
 in my mind I ha
 continue the ha
 me by the votes
 Let no one m
 I neither can n
 country any long form, nor for any
 on any pretext;
 son I have taken
 and my friends
 bow from all poli